Class Info

Background

Rogues hide themselves in darkness, lurking and waiting for the best time to strike with their lethal daggers. This class originated from the ancient Yaoh masters who survived and fought in stealth against the tyrants. Rogues are,natural born,stealthy killers. They seldom strike directly and seldom miss their target. They cherish the ancient renegade Pol Kuna, who fought his way alone into Heaven. Kuna was eventually beheaded, but his will and determination inspire all who call themselves Rogues.
